If minis aren't your thing.

Tie-Up A Button Down

“We are also seeing maxi skirts as an option for day worn with a flat sandal and a button down tied at the waist,” Stacy Smallwood, Founder and Owner of Hampden,” tells us. “The Italian brand, Forte Forte, epitomizes the ease of the summer maxi you want to wear while walking the streets of Florence and enjoying a gelato.” Look for cottons and linen button downs that will tie effortlessly and keep you cool on the hottest of days. Or you can test out a pre-tied style top as well, to channel that La Dolce Vita lifestyle wherever summer takes you.
